

statute “when a party makes general or conclusory objections that do not direct the court to a specific error in the magistrate judge’s proposed findings and recommendations.” Id. Moreover, the statute does not on its face require any review at all of issues that are not the subject of an objection. Thomas v. Arn, 474 U.S. 140, 149 (1985); Camby, 718 F.2d at 200. Nonetheless, a district judge is responsible for the final determination and outcome of the case, and accordingly the Court has conducted a careful review of the magistrate judge’s recommendation.

II. Discussion

After such careful review, the Court determines that the recommendation of the U.S. magistrate judge is fully consistent with and supported by current law. Further, the brief factual background and recitation of issues is supported by the applicable pleadings. Based on such determinations, the Court will fully affirm the Memorandum and Recommendation and grant relief in accordance therewith.

ORDER

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that the Memorandum and Recommendation, Doc. No. 15, is AFFIRMED, Plaintiff’s Motion for Summary Judgment, Doc. No. 9, is GRANTED, and Defendant’s Motion for Summary Judgment, Doc. No. 12, is DENIED. In accordance with the Memorandum and Recommendation of the U.S. magistrate judge, this case is remanded for further proceedings.
